

Curlew English medium term plan – Autumn 2021

Term	Fiction	Non-fiction	Poetry
Autumn	Fiction Required texts: Voyage of the Sparrowhawk by Natasha Farrant Description: Engage children with a story with which they will empathise. To explore themes and issues, and develop and sustain ideas through discussion, enabling children to make connections with their own lives. To develop creative responses to the text through drama, storytelling and artwork. To write in role in order to explore and develop empathy for characters. Grammar focus: 1. Learn a range of conjunctions to create compound and complex sentences. 2. Use relative clauses. 3. Use commas correctly, including to clarify meaning, avoid ambiguity and to indicate parenthesis. 4. Use correct punctuation to indicate speech.	Recounts / Instructions and explanations Required texts: Voyage of the Sparrowhawk by Natasha Farrant Description: Using the text, recount stories orally and in writing. Use the key features of instructions and explanations in context with the story. Grammar focus: 1. Learn to use adverbials of time, space and number 2. Use commas correctly, including to clarify meaning, avoid ambiguity and to indicate parenthesis. 3. Use expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely.	Observational poetry Required texts: A selection Description: Encourage children to think about how poetry can make the ordinary extraordinary. They enjoy a selection of modern and classic poems, exploring apt word choices and imagery (simile, metaphor & personification). Children make careful observations, imagine winter as a person, examine observational art and produce paintings to inspire them to write their own poetry. Grammar includes expanded noun phrases and relative clauses. Grammar focus: 1. Use expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely. 2. Use relative clauses.
	Newspapers, Letters, Diaries Required texts: Voyage of the Sparrowhawk by Natasha Farrant Description: Use the text to identify features of the different genres of writing. Use the texts to study dialogue, noun phrases & complex sentences. Write own texts. Grammar focus: 1. Learn a range of conjunctions to create compound and complex sentences. 2. Use expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely.	Travel writing Required texts: Voyage of the Sparrowhawk by Natasha Farrant Description: Explore exciting destinations through a range of travel writing. Read recounts of places and events in Not for Parents - The Real Wonders of the World. Learn about embedded clauses and the use of commas. Write a travel recount of a real or imaginary place, linked to our class book. Grammar focus: 1. Use embedded relative clauses. 2. Use commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity.	Reading and learning poems Required texts: I Like This Poem edited by Kaye Webb Description: Read and memorise poems from I Like that Poem, chosen by children and edited by Kaye Webb. Children gather together poems they like into an anthology and write two of their own. Grammar focus: 1. Use modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility. 2. Use brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis.